CLOSING A LEAGUE PLAY SET TONIGHT

National Electric bowed out in traditional grand slam style Monday evening when they squashed the National Supply boys 6-0 to garner the Torrance Municipal A League championship for 1952.

It was a one-hitter for pitcher Don Stiekley, with Scotty Albright swatting a single to left field late in the fifth for the only bingle of the night for the losers.

Tonight A League clashes come to an end with Longren Aeros meeting the Three M crew in an exhibition tiff at 7 o'clock, and Harvey Machine taking on the Amroco outfit in the nightcap at 8:30. Games will be held under the Torrance Park flickers.

DALE ROBERTSON ... signs for Sunday's Movie-Star Clash quietly after Berle Tuttle tallied, John Vardo made it to third, Dick Hall walked to second and Art Negrinelli was given a walk to first.

With three on and two gone, Jerry Jacobson went down swinging to blow the opportunity. Norm Early banged a bingle in the last frame but to no avail, he was followed by two outs and the end of the clash.

Hank Camou and Hearon socked home runs during the night, both scoring no one but the batter.

FISHERMEN THREE . . .

These three fishermen heard so much about the albacore run that they decided to try it themselves. Andy Cochran, local barber, at left, the Rev. C. M. Northrup of the First Baptist Church, and Ken R. Ruffell, Torrance shoemaker, boarded Ruffell's boat, headed for Catalina and 2½ hours later came back with the flock shown here.

Rotary Takes Lead In Pitch Playoffs

A titanic second run rally and rapid-fire pitching gave the Rotary Club a 6-5 victory over the Lions in the first game of Slow Pitch championship playoffs at the Torrance Park Tuesday night.

Play last night, after deadline time, would decide once and for all the top Old Men's team of the city, if Rotary came through with a win. But should the Lions have eked a victory, a showdown classic will be staged next Tuesday night at the park.

Starting off the drive was slugger George Post and there was no stopping the Rotarians until Joe chucker, Roy Peterson turned on the steam to nip the attack in the bud.

Following in Post's shoes were Willis Blount, Cecil England, John Shidler, Jack Dabbs and Bennie Smith — the runs for the entire night for the winners.

Make Comeback

Lions made a game attempt to recover part of the big loss in the third with Dr. Rollin Smith finally pounding down the home stretch. Walt Schaefer was left on third when Mott Farrell was picked off second sack.

Rotary knocked out the round No. 1 lead in the league and the Lions came through with a second round victory. Winner of this 2 out of 3 game series will be undisputed Old Men's League champ, at least until next season.

Stars Invade Sunday For Benefit Classic

Autograph-seekers, kids and baseball fans will have a field day Sunday evening when the famed Hollywood Movie-Stars softball crew invades Torrance Park for festivities with the local Harvey Machine softball girls.

And as an added attraction, the Torrance Dow Diamonds of National Nitelball fame, have billed an early fragas with the National Electric nine of the Municipal A League circuit.

Stars Galore

Such well-knowns as Jackie Coogan, Eddie Bracken, Frank Lovejoy, Dale Robertson, John Carroll and Frank Feylen, all playing under the able guidance of manager Ralph Volke, mark the roster of the Movie-Stars squad.

Adding her charms to the Torrance Park arena will be gorgeous Corinne Calvet, motion picture lovely. She's the spouse of John Bromfield, a regular on the roster.

C OF C BOYS, OPTIMISTS TOP LEAGUE

Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Optimists will vie for the Midget League champion title Friday night in the final showdown for the 1952 season. The Chamber boys whipped the North Torrance Rams 4-3 in a game which was called because of a time limit, and the Optimists beat the Pueblo CYO crew 8-7 to gain a berth in the finals.

In case Bracken has to go east, Donald O'Conner said he would pinch-hit for the well-known comic.

It'll be a real night for the Harvey gals, and Betty Bynum and Sylvia Hobbs have been working out behind locked doors to get their battery signals in order for the big event. The gals are unbeaten in league play, and have one game left—tonight.

Tickets will go at 50 cents per man, woman or child, and can be purchased at the gate Sunday evening or in advance from many plant personnel men, or at the Torrance-Herald, 1619 Gramercy Ave.

EXPECTANT MOTHER CAN'T SIT DOWN

It was disclosed today that Mrs. I. P. Reitan, local mother, is finding it difficult to sit down. She explained that she is expecting delivery shortly of her reupholstered sofa from Van's Mattress & Upholstery, and can't sit down comfortably until it arrives.

Mr. Van Wagner, of said upholstery company, would like to make every housewife expectant of his upholstery work. He claims satisfaction guaranteed. The phone please—Tor. 1194. It's and ad.
